WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT OHANA

"When I go to school at Ohana, I want to genuinely understand what they teach, because I'm not a student, I'm a learner and you just can't find that anywhere else."

Ohana Institute Student

"Ohana is a place for our child to BE himself, grow confidently into his dreams and become the adult able to achieve them."

Ohana Institute Parent

The collective goal of the conference is to ignite the exchange of perspectives and solutions on the topics of interest by showcasing the voice and leadership of students in an engaging environment with some of the nation's most well recognized leaders in education and government. The menu of activities includes student moderated panel discussions, engaging round-table conversations, interactive workshops, and student presentations, as well as, a host of relaxing evening activities. Participants will have access to Ohana Institute's state-of-the-art facility and The Pearl Hotel, in the quaint and unique setting of Rosemary Beach. The information shared is sure to provide participants with new and innovative approaches for successful educational outcomes in the coming months and years ahead.
